with perfect fielding back of him he should have scored an easy shut out.

Crawford made two triples, a double and a single, while Cobb hit three singles and a double. Two of Moriarity's three singles drove in runs.

Washington scared the champions in the first inning by getting three runs over the rubber without much effort.

Moriarity fumbled grounders offered by Conroy and Milan, and Unglaub sent them along with a sacrifice. Gessler then slammed a triple to the right field force and Conroy and Milan scored.

While Bush was throwing Lelivelt out Gessler crossed the rubber.

In the fourth Detroit solved Walker's delivery for five singles, scoring two an, runs, a splendid throw to the plate by Gessler that headed off Crawford. Checking the onslaught. In the eighth the interesting three singles and a triple pushed three in more runs over the rubber. The hitting continued in the ninth, a single by D. Jons, a double by Cobb, a triple by Crawford, and Moriarity's single netting three runs.

The locals retired in order in seven of the nine innings.

Sensational fly catches by Lelivelt and Gessler, share honors with Mullin's pitching. The score:

In a very one-sided game yesterday Seventh Street Christian Sunday-school team, of the West Er. League, defeated St. James Sunday-school team, of the Church Hill League, by the score of 12 to 0.

St. James was clearly outclassed from the very start, getting only two men to third base during the game.
Crawford had the team completely at his mercy, and when men were on bases he was at his best.
Richardson made three hits out of three times up. The special features of the game were the fielding and batting of the winners. By winning this game Seventh Street wins the championship of both leagues.
